

Animals of the Indian Canyons

Butterfly: malmal in Cahuilla

Most butterflies drink nectar from plants. They come in many different colors. There are about 17,500 kinds of butterflies in the world with around 170 species in Southern California. Most butterflies live in warm climates and like to bathe in the sunlight. A group of butterflies is called a kaleidoscope.

indian-canyons.com

malmal

